When Jesus finished washing their feet, he said, "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. No servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them."

John 13:12-17

SAYING GOOD-BYE IS HARD TO DO

After 5 years, our Children's Pastor, Alea Dutchuk, is stepping away from our staff and the Children's Ministry. While watching many of our kiddoes grow and flourish, she's also played an integral role in helping other ministerial areas move forward. Pray for Alea as she follows the Lord's leading into a new chapter. We are grateful for the many ways she's served here at Bismarck Baptist Church, and it is our wish to bless her next Sunday—a basket for cards and gifts will be at the information counter.
