

PRAISE & PRAYER

Holy God,

I present before You today—me and all my brokenness. I am unworthy to be called Your child. I have sinned in thought ____, word ____, and deed _____. I confess these transgressions to You, as I wish to turn from them and be renewed by Your forgiveness and Your merciful kindness. Thank you for Jesus’ death in my place, so that I can come directly to You, confessing and asking and praising. I love You, Father, for taking me in and cleansing me. Glory to You! Bless Jesus’ name! Hal-lelujah!

Today I bring to mind before You, those who are sick, in pain, in turmoil, in grief, in all matters of confusion and bewilderment _____. Holy Spirit, minister to each person according to God’s will, so that they will know and feel His presence and His help. Draw those who don’t know _____ our Father to Him in unmistakable clarity or comfort or compassion, so that they may worship in truth and be a witness to God’s glory and Jesus’ sacrifice.

I don’t have words to describe the beautiful transaction You’ve made with mankind, but it is my wish for all to know and experience Your loving kindness, so help me be the light as Jesus is the light, shining in the darkness for You.

In Jesus’ holy name, I pray. Amen.
